July 26, 2004 Town-Hall Forum with Jefferson County Commissioner Candidates

Jefferson County Commissioner Candidates will attend a town-hall forum featuring frank and direct discussions regarding the issues most important to our community. Moderator, Rob Witwer, will ensure that candidates will discuss their views, and more importantly, answer questions directly from the audience. The forum takes place at 7:00 pm Monday, July 26, 2004 at the Crystal Rose, an event center located at 636 Lookout Mtn. Road on Lookout Mountain above the City of Golden and south of Buffalo Bill's Grave and Museum.

Current Commissioners, Michelle Lawrence and Pat Holloway, vacate their positions in 2005 and are not seeking re-election. Candidates running for each of these seats will attend the forum:

DISTRICT ONE (Northern district)

Scott Benefield (D) and Mark McGoff (D) and Jim Congrove (R), Wally Pulliam (R)

DISTRICT TWO (CARE residents in this district)

Kevin McCaskey and (R) Guy Stocking (D)

Expect direct discussion on current hot issues, including our community's health and economic welfare being compromised by the current and future TV and FM broadcast towers atop Lookout Mtn. This forum is brought to you by Canyon Area Residents. CARE will not endorse any particular candidate
